

10. Name two things Maine was known for during the Civil War.

(1.) The publication (putting out a new book) of Harriet Beecher Stowe's book, Uncle Tom's Cabin (Site 1). Many people did not agree with the ideas Stowe wrote about in her book (Site 1).

(Site 13)

(2.) Two of the great generals in the Union Army were from Maine (Site 1). General Oliver Otis Howard performed well at the Battles of Gettysburg and Bull Run (Site 1). General Joshua L. Chamberlain was a hero of the Battle at Little Round Top (Site 1).

(Site 14)